

OUR TOWN ~ THEN & NOW

Learning local history through art and each other!

Dates/Times:

Sundays: 3/1, 3/8, 3/15, 3/22, 3/29, 4/12, 4/19 * 1:30p.m.-3:30p.m.

Saturday: 5/2 * 12:30p.m.-2:30p.m.

Where: Waterville Public Library

A free 8 session class is being offered at the Waterville Public Library! Learn local history through historic documents, guest speakers, art, and fellow students. Led by Teaching Artist Shirleyanne Ratajczak, this course is primarily intended for people 60+.

Register at <http://ourtown2015.eventbrite.com> or by calling 207.680.2603.

Free and open to the public. Registration required by 2/28/15.

For more information, please contact Tammy Rabideau at 207.680.2611 or trabideau@watervillelibrary.org.

Sponsored by Maine Arts Commission Creative Aging Partnership Grant

73 Elm Street, Waterville, ME 04901 | (207) 872-5433 | Fax (207) 873-4779 |

info@watervillelibrary.org | www.watervillelibrary.org

WATERVILLE
PUBLIC LIBRARY
LOCAL HISTORY & GENEALOGY