MID-MAINE GLOBAL FORUM est. 1997

Fall Speaker Series

Friday, Oct. 30th, Friday, Nov. 20th, and Wednesday, Dec. 16th
Chace Forum, 150 Main Street, Waterville - all events at 12pm noon

In partnership with the Camden Conference and the Waterville Public Library, the Mid-Maine Global Forum presents our Fall 2026 Speaker Series! Our speakers will cover a wide-range of topics, including ocean governance and how the modern law of the sea took shape, the Cold War and the period since the fall of the Soviet Union as context for evolving current events, and United Nations' approaches to different aspects of the climate crisis. We hope you will join us! All events are free and open to the public.

Ezgi Yildiz
"Who Governs the Oceans? The Law of the Sea in a Shifting World Order"
Friday, Oct. 30th, 12pm

Rob Weisbrot
"The Cold War in History and Current Conflicts"
Friday, Nov. 20th, 12pm

Diana Elhard
Negotiating our "Triple Planetary Crisis": an Inside View of United Nations' Negotiations on Biodiversity, Pollution, and Climate Treaties
Wednesday, Dec. 16th, 12pm

Speakers Series Details

All events in the fall Speaker Series will be held in the Chace Forum (150 Main Street Waterville) from 12 - 1pm. Parking is available on Main Street or on the Waterville Concourse. MMGF will provide coffee, tea, and sweets. You are welcome to bring a lunch! If you have any questions about the events, please write to midmaineglobalforum@gmail.com

Presented in partnership with Camden Conference and Waterville Public Library

CAMDEN CONFERENCE

WATERVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY